Mission in the City: Revealing the City of God in the City of Man

Workshop participants will explore biblical reasons and ways to seek the shalom of their city or town with the Great Commission and Great Commandment in mind.

Session 1: Building a Foundation

Shalom (Jeremiah 29.7)

Resident aliens (1 Peter 2.11, 12)

Salt and light (Matthew 5.13-16)

Session 2: An Introduction to City - Reading these articles by Dr. Tim Keller will provide helpful background for our discussion.

Session 3: Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ? - Reading the attached article, "The Bad Question of Proclamation vs. Social Action," from the Evangelical Missions Quarterly will provide helpful background for our discussion.

Point/ Counterpoint: Which is more important?

Session 4: Reading your neighborhood, city or town

Making a plan

CREDIT PARTICIPANTS must read Encounter God in the City: Onramps to Personal and Community Transformation by Randy White and write a review (two pages, double spaced, 1" margins, 12 point Times Roman) due in hard copy at the workshop that answers the following questions:

- 1] In summary, what does the book say? (describe)
- 2] What does it mean by what it is expressing? (interpret)
- 3] What is deficient about the book? What is positive about the book (analyze)
- 4] Is it worthwhile and helpful to you in ministry? (evaluate)

CREDIT PARTICIPANTS will complete a project (due by email to Archdeacon Kristi Alday, kalday@cfdiocese.org) that engages their ministry experience, workshop learning and mission context.
