

Old Testament Survey

Instructor: The Rev. Charlie Holt, Rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church

Course Description

The Old Testament is filled with stories of human faithfulness and failure, God's judgment and redemption. It contains challenging laws and rules, prophetic mysteries and insightful wisdom. Taught by the Rev. Charlie Holt, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Lake Mary FL, this survey class will provide the attendee a general overview of every book in the Old Testament. The class will also explore the big picture of how the books function together as a redemptive work for God's people. We will also learn how to apply the Old Testament scriptures faithfully in the age of the New Covenant.

Syllabus:

Read: Deuteronomy, Judges, 2 Samuel 7, Psalm 2, Jonah, Amos

Topics Covered: Interpretation Lenses: (Canonical, Literary, Redemptive-Historical)
The Law of Moses (Pentateuch)
The Historic Books
The Wisdom Literature
The Prophets
Interpretive Keys to unlock the Old Testament
Interpreting the Old Testament in Light of the New
The Messiah in the Old Testament

Texts for Further Study:

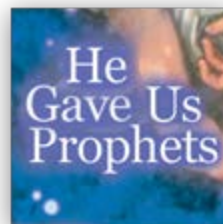

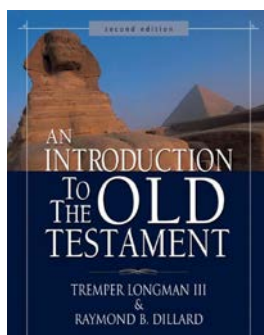

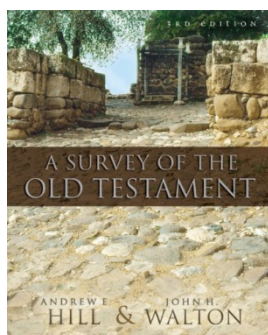

Introduction to the Old Testament: Second Edition by Tremper Longman III and Raymond Dillard

A Survey of the Old Testament: Third Edition Andrew Hill and John Walton

He Gave Us Prophets a video series by Richard Pratt

<http://thirdmill.org/seminary/course.asp/vs/hgp>

http://www.thebiblechallenge.org/bible-study-guide/old_testament_study_guide

The Bible Challenge
A daily guide to reading the Bible in a year